

CAREER OPPORTUNITIES

PUTTING DISC INTO PRACTICE

After watching the video 'Employment Applications & DISC', it's time to put your learnings into practice. To begin, research job openings online and choose a position you are interested in.

Write the position title here:

STRENGTH

Read through the position description. Identify a key component of the role that matches one of your strengths as highlighted in your DISC Profile Report.

Provide more detail about this strength:

Give an example of how you have demonstrated this strength in an action relevant to this role.

AREA FOR DEVELOPMENT

Now, repeat the above for an area of the role that you may need to develop in. When reading through the position description, identify a key component of the role that matches one of your potential areas for development as highlighted in your DISC Profile Report.

Provide more detail about this area:

Give an example of how you have demonstrated that you have been working on developing this area:
